

I Must Go

*I must go, don't weep for me,
For I have finally won the victory,
Don't look upon me and be sad,
Let your heart rejoice and be glad
For I have finally won the race
And I am gone to a better place.
With new strength and courage I must hurry on
And the burdens of life seem far beyond;
Now the children have grown and gone their way
And the angels called me on that day...
But with blessings from my God above
I feel so filled with His eternal love*

Acknowledgement

Our family wishes to extend its profound and sincere gratitude for the outpouring of love, support, and prayers during this difficult time. Through our cherished memories, Audrey will live on in our hearts forever. May we continue to celebrate her life by living freely and with gratitude every single day that we have the ability to take a breath.

Obituary

AUDREY FAY ATKINSON was born in Jamaica, West Indies on September 4, 1949. She was the second child of the late Ida Stewart-Nicholson. Audrey spent her childhood days in Jamaica where she attended elementary school and after graduation she went on to higher education.

Audrey was a very organized person; everything should be in its own place. She loved cooking on the weekends, reading, doing crossword puzzles, going to the movies, shopping at Macy's and watching T.V. She departed from us on May 4, 2020 at the New York Presbyterian Hospital.

Audrey was affectionately known as Auntie. She was an aunt to everyone and was loved by everyone, especially Michael her nephew and her sister Betty. She also leaves behind a host of other relatives and friends. We can't begin to name each one, just know that you were all loved unconditionally. She cherished the time you all were in her life.
