

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;

thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Obituary

CHARLESETTA WRIGHT was born December 19, 1935 to Samuel & Phoebe Wright in Savannah, GA.

She attended school in Georgia until graduation. She left Savannah & moved to Maryland in 1935 where she met and married Jerry Jones. From this union two children were born, Cheryl & Terrell.

Charlesetta was a housewife until Jerry’s death. She then moved to New York City in 1960, first she lived in Harlem then she moved to the Bronx in 1968. She was employed by the Local 32BJ Union as an office cleaner for 30 years. Later in life Charlesetta became a home attendant caring for the elderly until she retired. During her retirement she relocated to Savannah to be with her mother. In the summer of 2012 Charlestta returned to New York City.

Charlesetta loved listening to B.B. King and danced to James Brown. She enjoyed reading, arts & crafts and playing numbers. Her smart mouth or sarcasm drew attention but never to belittle. People enjoyed her company because of her quick wit and great sense of humor. She was called “Sister” by family and friends.

Charlesetta was preceded in death by her husband; sisters, Ruby, Thelma, & Dorothy; brother, Samuel, Jr.; granddaughter, Shandel and nephew, Richard.

Charlesetta leaves to mourn her passing, children, Cheryl & Terrell; grandson, Tristan; granddaughter Laurel; great grandson, Mason; sister, Phoebe Ann; and several nieces, nephews, and a host of relatives and friends. She will be missed by all that knew her and loved her.
