

Psalm 91

*Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust."
Surely he will save you
from the fowler's snare
and from the deadly pestilence.
He will cover you with his feathers,
and under his wings you will find refuge;
his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.
You will not fear the terror of night,
nor the arrow that flies by day,
nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness,
nor the plague that destroys at midday.
A thousand may fall at your side,
ten thousand at your right hand,
but it will not come near you.*

Obituary

DORIS GOODWIN was born on April 30, 1931 in Charleston, South Carolina to Earnest and Lillian Delyons.

She married James Goodwin, together they left South Carolina and made a life for themselves in New York City. They eventually settled in Harlem, where they lived in Abraham Lincoln Houses for almost seventy years. Doris dedicated her life to raising her children as well as her grandchildren and was a source of strength and inspiration to all who knew her.

Doris passed away peacefully in her home on the morning of September 29, 2024, at the age of 93. She was preceded in death by her husband, her son, James Goodwin Jr. and her siblings, all of whom she missed dearly and longed for in her final days. She is survived by seven children, eleven grandchildren, six great grandchildren, two sons-in-law, one daughter-in-law, one brother- in-law, Mr. Harold Payne Sr. (Florence Payne) and a host of nieces and nephews.

She will be deeply missed and never forgotten.
