

Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie
down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of
the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*

Obituary

FLORENCE ROSETTA GREAVES - KINLOCK was born on May 11, 1930 to the union of James and Georgiana Hendrickson. She was the third of seven siblings. On May 1, 2020 God called her home. She joins her parents, brothers Wilmuth and George, sister Gertrude (Aunt Cookie), her daughter Marie (Peanut) who preceded her in death and her husband's Robert Greaves and Huntley Kinlock.

Florence attended Needles and Trade school which is now known as Fashion Institute High School. Florence was a talented seamstress and excelled in sewing winning several awards. She was a perfectionist at knitting and crocheting and enjoyed creating projects that her family and friends could enjoy.

After graduating from high school she worked at the Bell telephone company as a supervising telephone operator. She later left Bell Telephone Company, to pursue her passion as an accountant. Florence loved numbers. She was employed at Candy & Tobacco as an accountant/ bookkeeper until her retirement in 2010.

On June 2, 1949 she married, Robert Langston Greaves. From that union she gave birth to twin daughters Carol and Marie. Her marriage to Robert ended and on January 15, 1965 Lorne Greaves Dunn joined the family. On February 20, 1975 she wed Huntley Kinlock.

Florence was a fun-loving woman who enjoyed life. During her past time Florence loved to gamble. She purchased lottery tickets, scratch cards and played numbers daily. Florence and her sister Marie regularly would go to the Atlantic City casinos and play the slot machines. She also loved to play cards, Friday through Sunday she would host many card games and would always include her father and her partner in crime her sister Marie. Upon her retirement Florence regularly attended several senior citizens centers throughout the Bronx playing bingo games and enjoying socializing with her peers.

On August 1, 2016 she moved into the Eastchester Rehabilitation Health Center until her death. Florence touched many lives while living at the Eastchester Health center. She was filled of life as she was always making jokes and talking crap. Her peers affectionately called her Flo. She was always involved in many activities especially bingo and spades and most of the time you will find her doing crosswords search or scratching game cards while eating skittles. She routinely watched her favorite game show Let's make a Deal, Price is Right, Jeopardy, and The Wheel of Fortune.

Florence leaves a legacy of fond memories. She will be greatly missed. She leaves to mourn her passing her beloved daughter Carol, son Lorne, her loving siblings Milton, Marie, Jane and David (Uncle Tiny). Grandchildren Mark, Darrell (Donut) (and wife Melissa) Derrick (and wife Michelle), Damien, Christopher, Justin, (and wife Meagan), Jazmine, and Lorne Jr. Great grandchildren Taylor, Dakota, Madison, Xavier, Kelsey, Maya, Drevyn, Hevyn, and a host of niece, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.
