

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me."*

*With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay.*

*Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

Obituary

FULTON McRAE CANTY was born in Wilmington NC on October 11, 1930. His parents Katie Brooks Canty and Ernest Canty Sr. hailed from Wilmington, NC and Sumter, SC respectively. Together they raised 3 children, Fulton, Ernest Jr., and Audrey Canty.

His parents migrated to Harlem leaving Fulton and his brother in the care of their grandparents and they later joined their parents in Harlem. Fulton was educated in the NYC public school system including DeWitt Clinton H.S.

Fulton’s first union with Constance Grier produced two children, Paula and Richard Canty. He later married Thelma Brown and that union produced a son, Fulton Garrett Canty.

After various jobs Fulton eventually settled at Con Edison where he worked for many years until his retirement, in which he lived an active retirement life. His favorite hobby was playing the numbers and he was quite successful at it.

Fulton is survived by his wife, Thelma Canty. Children, Paula Harris, Richard Canty, and Fulton Garrett Canty. Also by his stepsons, Anthony White and Jerome White. His grandchildren, Michael Harris, Nakia Harris, Jarrett Canty, Jordan Canty, Jermaine White, Vanderhurst White and Jamal White. Great grandchildren, Leslie Tracy and Gabriel Harris. Sister, Audrey Canty Gainer, Nieces Renee Gainer, Gail Gainer, and Roxanne Canty. Sisters-in-Law, Yvonne Grier and Beverly Deleston. He is also survived by a host of other nieces and nephews.

Sleep well, you are in God’s hands now but you will be missed.
