

May you always walk in sunshine and God's love around you flow, for the happiness you gave us, no one will ever know. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone. A part of us went with you, the day God called you home. A million times we've needed you. A million times we've cried. If love could only have saved you, you never would have died.

*Eternal rest grant unto him
O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him.
The Lord be with you and may you Rest In Peace*

Obituary

JAMES MILLER JR., was born January 22, 1984 to Emma R. Miller and the late James S. Miller Sr. He was the seventh of eight children.

James aka (Poonie or POP) was educated in the New York school system. He boxed for Jefferson Boxing Gym where Helen Braxton, Negra and Miguel Rosario were his trainers. He then trained with the Supreme team and his trainer was Milton Lacroix. James traveled for years to many states for various competitions and returned home victorious each time. He also loved, basketball, creating music and motorcycle riding.

James loved to spend time with his family. He would facetime you at any given moment, all the time. He was hard working and a great provider for his family. He was always coming up with a way to make money and then have his money make him more money. To know him you knew he was loving, caring, straight forward, no nonsense and about his business.

James leaves to mourn: Wife, Amanda Miller; Four children, James Stewart Miller III, Brielle Emma Miller, Bryson Aaron Miller and Briley Michelle Miller; Mother, Emma Miller; siblings, Michele James, Christopher Harper, Lillian Miller, Matika Miller and Spechell Miller; and a host of nieces, nephews, sister and brother in laws, aunts, uncles, special friends and Godmother Helen Braxton.

James was predeceased by: father, James Stewart Miller, Sr.; siblings, Nakia Miller and Aaron Harper.

In God's care you rest above.

In our hearts you rest with love.

Memories of you are ours to keep.

Our words are few but our love is deep.
