

Psalm 23

*The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:*

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Our family wishes to extend our profound and sincere gratitude for the outpouring of love, support, and prayers during this difficult time. Through our cherished memories,

Kathleen will live on in our hearts forever. May we continue to celebrate her life by living freely and with gratitude every single day that we have the ability to take a breath.

Obituary

Kathleen Lorraine Rosario, widely known and loved as Kath, Kathy, and K.K., passed away on September 3, 2024, at the age of 82, in Clarksburg, Maryland. She was born in Harlem, New York City on July 10, 1942. Kathleen's journey through life was marked by her resilience and determination.

Kathleen graduated from Central Commercial High School and furthered her education at Bronx Community College. She built a notable career as a paralegal at District Council 37, where her intelligence and creativity were highly valued. Although she excelled in numerous roles professionally, her most notable contributions came from her unwavering commitment to instilling love, values and opportunity within the family she created.

Kathleen's personal life was filled with joy derived from her hobbies which included cooking, planting, flower arranging, fishing, shopping and dancing. She was a natural connector of people, consistently hosting celebrations for family and friends throughout the years, particularly during holidays. She was an avid reader and music lover, which complemented her artistic and fashionable nature. Her charisma and creative spirit were evident in every aspect of her life.

Kathleen's life was a testament to her boundless generosity and kindness. She found joy in her many hobbies yet, her true fulfillment came from serving those around her. She was always ready to lend a hand, offering a place to stay, providing for those in need, and giving heartfelt encouragement and counsel to friends and family alike.

Kathleen's legacy of love and protection is carried on by her children, Lynette Choice, Dawne Ndiaye, Karen Hunter, and Darryl Phillips, and her son-in-laws Birame Ndiaye, and Michael Hunter. She also leaves behind her sisters, Patricia Singleton and Andrea Ferrara, and brother-in-law Joseph Ferrara. Her sister/friend Ruth Fofana and her family. Her sister/friend Carmen Cintron and her family. Kathleen was a proud grandmother to Ernesto and Dihan Guadalupe, Elena and Stanley Blount-Jordan, Charles and Fatima Choice, Aisha Ndiaye, Fatima Ndiaye, MaiMouna Ndiaye, Jordan Hunter, and Simone Hunter, as well as a great-grandmother to Stanley Jordan Jr., Corey Jordan, Cali Figueroa, and Allara Guadalupe. She was a cherished aunt to Vincil England, Darrin England, Lisa Ferrara, Anjoli Ferrara, and Joseph Ferrara Jr.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Catherine Wilson; father, Ronald Kenneth Sharpe; daughter, Donna Guadalupe; brother-in-law, George Singleton; and great-grandson, Malcolm Guadalupe.

Kathleen's life was a shining example of resilience, nurturing care, and unending loyalty. She will be profoundly missed by everyone who had the privilege of knowing her, particularly the many friends who became like family. Her legacy endures in the warm and inspiring memories she leaves behind. As she joins those who came before her, her spirit will continue to be a guiding light, embodying love, joy, and enduring inspiration for all who were touched by her presence.
