

I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Obituary

Inspirational, perceptive, loyal, productive and candid, KYRON MARLYN BRACEY was born to his dedicated and supportive mother, Marlo Bracey in Harlem, New York on July 7, 1995. Kyron was a robust baby and loved apple juice, thus the nickname, “Juice”.

Kyron was a member of Blessed Trinity Baptist Church and was baptized on October 28, 2011. He had strong moral values and displayed a deep concern for the well-being of others, always calling/texting to check on family and friends. He texted his mother daily, frequently to say, “I’m sending you $20.00 for lunch.”

As a young boy, Kyron developed a love of learning and grasped educational concepts quickly. He took education very seriously and set high standards for himself. Kyron attended C.S. 133, All Saints and Bishop Loughlin High School, where he was a shooting guard on the basketball team. He proudly headed to HBCU’s Virginia Union University and attained a Bachelor’s degree in 2017.

Kyron’s first experience with playing organized sports began at age 10 when he played on AAU teams (Team Rock and Gauchos). This allowed him to travel and compete against teams from other cities. Marlo made certain to accompany Kyron and his brother on every trip.

While at Virginia Union, Kyron met the lovely Albani Baker. The two grew inseparable, proving their love and support of each other. Kyron and Albani worked hard to excel and achieve their goals. It was always a pleasure to hear of their next move and accomplishments. They recently purchased a home, added their yorkie, “Zola” to their union and were looking forward to a long life together. Kyron and Albani loved to travel, dine and watch their favorite television shows together (Breaking Bad, Snow Fall and The Sopranos). Watching the entire series of The Wire was an annual event. (It became a MUST!).

Kyron was employed at Vituity Practice Management as an Overboarding Specialist. He had begun to hone his interest in real estate, financial investments and screenwriting. He enjoyed writing scripts and started taking screenwriting courses. He was an ardent basketball and football fan. The Lakers was his favorite team, Kobe Bryant, his favorite player and the Giants (finally, New York) was his favorite football team.

On Saturday, July 23, 2022, while visiting New York City for his family’s annual cookout, Kyron’s life was tragically taken away from us and he transitioned at Harlem Hospital.

Heartbroken, but honored to cherish the memories of Kyron are devoted mother; Marlo Bracey, brothers; Torrence and Dytrell, grandmother and family matriarch; Ethel Bracey (Momma E), Godparents; Christina, Benjamin and Stephen, Godsisters; Janea, Brieyanna, girlfriend; Albani, other mother; Yolanda, positive male influence; Carl, a host of aunts and uncles, cousins, family and friends, including best friends; Veronica, Nellz, P.H, Mo, Twon and Gary. His sister, Shantel preceded Kyron in death.

Kyron, you have always made us proud. We miss you dearly and will forever hold you in our hearts. Rest well.

Lovingly, Your Family
