

*"Then your light will break forth like the dawn,
and your healing will quickly appear;
then your righteousness will go before you,
and the glory of the Lord will be your rear guard."*

-Isaiah 58:8

Obituary

MARIE SADILA GABRIEL, beloved matriarch and devoted homemaker, passed away on May 29, 2024 at her home in Harlem, NYC, surrounded by her loving family. She was born on March 11, 1934 in Artibonte, Haiti to the proud parents Similor and Omilia Dorcilhomme.

As the eldest of 10 siblings, Sadila embraced her role as a keeper and second mother, nurturing her younger brother and sisters with love and affection. Growing up she mastered the art of farming and housework instilling her lifelong commitment to maintaining a spotless home and serving the most delicious meals.

In the 1980’s, Sadila immigrated to America with her family settling in Harlem, NYC where she continued her role as a devoted homemaker and caregiver to many children in the neighborhood. Her door was always open, and she welcomed everyone with open arms with no judgment.

Sadila’s greatest joy in life was her family. She married Lifaite Gabriel and together they shared over 50 years of unconditional love and devotion. Together, they raised 10 children and plenty others whom they welcomed into their hearts.

A women of deep faith, Sadila always prioritized her relationship with God, ensuring that her family followed in her footsteps. She found solace in cooking, taking leisurely walks, and spending cherished moments with her beloved family.

Sadila will be remembered for her unwavering love, strength, and resilience. She leaves behind a legacy of love and kindness that will forever live on in the hearts of her 10 children, 21 grand/great grandchildren, 4 younger siblings, and many nieces and nephews. She will be greatly missed.
