

"When I Must Leave You"

*When I must leave you
For a little while
Please do not grieve
And shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you
Through the years*

*But start out bravely
With a gallant smile:
And for my sake
And in my name
Live on and do
All things the same,*

*Feed not your loneliness
On empty days,
But fill each waking hour
In useful ways,*

*Reach out your hand
In comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near;*

*And never, never
Be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*

Obituary

MOSES JACOB JONES, JR., was born February 26, 1932 in New Bern, North Carolina to the proud parents of Moses Jacob Jones, Sr. and Gladys White Jones-Foy. He was the second child of three children.

Moses attended elementary, middle and high school in North Carolina. After high school graduation, he entered the US Army on Monday, August 28, 1950 and served in the Korean War as a Sergeant. He was honorably discharged on the 27th of August 1953 with the rank of Staff Sergeant.

After the Army chapter, Moses met Doris Lee Wallace (deceased). They were married in New Bern on June 5th, 1955. Two children came from this union, Anthony Maurice and Antoinette Derise.

Moses was fortunate to obtain employment with Conduit Rapid Delivery and was with this truck company for over 30 years. Moses was a long and faithful member of Providence Baptist Church for 20 years where he served as a dedicated Deacon in the church.

“Mose”, a nickname given by his sport-team buddies, won several trophies in tournaments. He had a passion for baseball, basketball and football. Despite his busy schedule, Moses still found time to volunteer his services with the youth of the community. He wanted to paint a green path for kids and teenagers so they would not end up on drugs or in the penal system. He was a great role model for the younger generation.

Moses touched many lives. Everyone will miss him. Moses was preceded in death by his brother Stanley A. White and his first son Carl Jones. Moses leaves to mourn his passing, children Anthony Jones and Antoinette Cherry (Tony Cherry), brother Calvin Foy, Sr., grandchildren Anthony Cherry (Janelle Cherry) and Jamaal Cherry, Deshawn Jones and Lawrence Jones. Great grandchildren Santana Cherry, Maxwell Cherry and Kaleb Jones, sister-in-law Cleo White, nieces Pamela Holloway-White, Dr. Debra White-Kinsey, Kim Foy-Paige and Yvette Foy-Gadden. Nephews Darryl Barnes and Calvin Foy, Jr. Family friends Daryl L. Murray, Beatrice Franklin, Joe Ortiz and a host of other uncles, aunts, cousins, great nieces and great nephews.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family
