

*“Somewhere the sun is shining
Through mists of hazy blue:
Somewhere here is no sorrow
And hearts are happy and true.*

*Somewhere there is no parting,
Somewhere there is no pain:
Somewhere loved ones are waiting
To greet us once again.*

*And tho' beyond our understanding
We will put our hearts at rest,
Somewhere in all His Wisdom,
A loving God knows best.”*

Acknowledgements

Our family wishes to extend its profound and sincere gratitude for the outpouring of love, support, and prayers during this difficult time. Through our cherished memories, “SANDI” will live on in our hearts forever. May we continue to celebrate her life by living freely and with gratitude every single day that we have the ability to take a breath.

Obituary

MURIEL "SANDI" MOYLER, departed this life on Monday June 29th, 2020 at the same place where she was born, Harlem Hospital, in Manhattan. She was born on September 8, 1933, the second child born to her parents, Freeman Moyler Sr. and Pearl (Brown) Moyler.

She attended public schools in her formative years and graduated from Central Commercial High School in Manhattan.

A lifelong Harlem resident, Sandi had a career of great achievement at the Metropolitan Transportation Authority, where she excelled in her secretarial job assignments. In addition to providing secretarial assistance to senior staff, she scheduled and coordinated meetings and activities. Her skills were highly regarded. She was regularly called upon to orient new personnel in her department (Capital Programs and Construction Oversight).

Sandi had a passion for traveling and visited many places including France, Venezuela, St. Maarten, and the Bahamas. At home, she enjoyed visiting her favorite casino, the Claridge, in Atlantic City. She enjoyed shopping, writing, and eating ice cream. She performed volunteer work tutoring children at local public schools, and helping senior citizens. She worked closely with her tenant committee at her beloved Lenox Terrace, the complex she called home for 60 years.

Sandi was preceded in death by her parents, her brothers Freeman, Jr., (Aline), John (Andrea), Champlin, and nephew Damon. A brother, Melvin, is estranged from the family.

She leaves to mourn her memory, her sister Elaine, nieces Stephanie, Joy, Denise, Diahann, Sheryl and Stacey; sister-in-law Diana Finch Moyler. Nephews include Jason (also a godson), Darryl, John, Darren and Andre. She leaves behind a host of grand nieces and nephews.

Sandi also leaves behind her beautiful friend and neighbor through the years, Bonnie Lou Midyette, who was like a sister to Sandi.

The family extends a heartfelt thank you to Dr. Peter Gliatto and the staff at the Mount Sinai Visiting Doctors program.

A special thanks also goes out to Sandi's friend, Jamel Bjorntzen, who is a concierge at her building. He provided such special care for her. She had the highest regard for him. Jamel, you were a Godsend.

Sandi, may you be welcomed into God's Kingdom. You will be missed.

Lovingly submitted,

The Family
