

The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come;
Thy will be done;
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.*

Acknowledgments

Our family wishes to extend our profound and sincere gratitude for the outpouring of love, support, and prayers during this difficult time. Through our cherished memories, NEIL will live on in our hearts forever. May we continue to celebrate his life by living freely and with gratitude every single day that we have the ability to take a breath.

Obituary

NEIL CEDRIC DINGLE was born on August 2, 1948 to Kermit Theodore Dingle and Vivian Barry Dingle in Harlem Hospital in Manhattan, but was raised in The Bronx.

Growing up, Neil was very athletic. He was very good at whatever sport he was competing in, especially basketball, handball, and paddleball. He was also in a bowling league for ten years. He was a very pleasant person to be around with a good sense of humor.

After graduating from William Howard Taft High School, he enlisted in the United States Air Force in 1966. He served four years and took up photography while he was there. He was later released with an Honorable Discharge.

Shortly thereafter he met Letitia Bolling (predeceased) and eventually they got married. From this union was born Neil Cedric Dingle Jr. He also has two daughters, Towana Dingle and Shanee Stepny from other relationships. Neil & Tish, as she was affectionately known, were valued participants at the Old Timers Day Celebration for over fifty years. Neil was employed by the U.S. Post Office for 27 years.

Neil leaves behind his son Neil C. Dingle Jr., daughters Towana Dingle and Shanee Stepny, his brother Kermit T. Dingle Jr., nephew Kermit T. Dingle III, granddaughters Naitalya Dingle, Mya Brown, and Sheila Ramsey, grandsons Tory Tillery, Teraine Dingle, and Julian Dingle, greatgrands Jaden and Jemel Savage, Al Peterson, and Ace Dingle, and a host of other relatives and friends. May he rest in peace.
