

TO CAINE, FROM YOUR BROTHER BOBBY:

The Greatest Fighter

Randy aka Caine aka "Rambo" always had a sense of style. You could not tell him he did not look fly. And when I say Rambo it means RAMBO from boxing to wrestling or just being into something from early age until now.

Caine did things his way

BUT NEVER WENT OUT WITHOUT A FIGHT!

Love you Bro. I will miss you.

Obituary

RANDY CAINE LIVINGSTONE of Bronx, New York entered eternal rest on May 30, 2020.

Randy was born on February 15, 1973 to the proud parents of Barbara Hayes and Randolph Jr.

Randy was preceded in death by his sister Shavon Denise Hayes.

Randy attended elementary school in the Bronx. He attended Adlai E. Stevenson High School in the Bronx. He was employed doing construction work, MGM Universal Studio, and he worked with his father doing lawn care until he became ill.

Randy was known as Caine to some and Rambo to many, he loved to be surrounded by his family and especially at gatherings. He always had a story to tell, some clean and some not so clean, but he loved to see people laugh.

Randy until his passing lived with his cousin Wendy and her husband Mark for 6 years. During that time he grew very fond of them. Also enjoying the time he spent with them.

Entrusted to continuously celebrate his life, he leaves his only daughter Deshare Livingstone of Orlando, Florida, his mother Barbara Hayes of Bronx, New York, his father Randolph Livingstone of Orlando, Florida, 3 brothers and 1 sister: Bobby L. Williams of Manhattan, New York, Randolph Livingstone 11 of Baltimore, Brad Redd of North Carolina, Charmaine S. Williams of Bronx, New York.

Randy also leaves behind beloved Aunts, Uncles, Nieces, Nephews & Cousins who each held an incredibly special place in his heart that can never be replaced. He also had an incredibly special friend, Precious of Orlando, Florida, Deshare’s mother.

With great sorrow Randy may not be here with us in person but with joy he will never be forgotten.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family
