

Remember Me

*Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter,
We've shared throughout the years.
Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing that I passed along the way
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning, noon and night.*

Obituary

ROSALIND MICHELLE MCCOY was born in New York, NY to Edna and William Barnett on April 23, 1930. She was the eldest of three siblings including Phyllis and Gloria.

Rosalind attended elementary and junior high school in New York City and graduated from the all-girls Cathedral High School in Manhattan. As the eldest, she learned to sew and cared for her younger siblings. In 1955, Rosalind began working at Bell Telephone Company. She retired from Bell now AT&T as a Computer Operator in 1995. While working in Manhattan, she met Bernard McCoy and the two wed in May 1964. Together they raised four children, Kimon, Damaris, Earl and Stephen.

Rosalind was a devout Catholic and attended St Charles Borromeo Church and The Church of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal. "Roz" was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother and enjoyed traveling with her children and grandchildren. She loved jazz music and sharing stories of growing up in Harlem, New York. Her home was the gathering place for countless holiday meals and a treasured sanctuary for beloved family.

Rosalind was preceded in death by her parents Edna and William, siblings Phyllis Bowler and Gloria Boyd, stepson Kimon and granddaughter Nadjawa. Left to cherish her memory are her three children Damaris McCoy, Earl McCoy and Stephen McCoy, four grandchildren Alita, Chatice, Andre, Brian, six great grandchildren Taylor, Sydney, Lauren, Kiara, Julian, Justin, niece Deborah, nephews Tony, Tony, Chris and a host of family and friends.
