

Our Family's Prayer

Today, we gather as a family, our hearts are heavy, as trials and tribulations flow upon us in the most wearying way, as we have seen days thought never to witness, as the emotional and financial burdens have left some of us lonely, and some scared some angry and some hungry some certainly regretful and some doubtful but mostly, weakened. "Oh Lord, yes weakened, so we ask you, in our most humblest and honest way, as your children, "Oh Lord", "Oh Magnificent One", "Creator of all creations", the absolute "Most High"... Clear our minds and lighten our hearts, strengthen us, as we are your children, as we submit to you, ourselves, fragile, teach us what it is to be truly gracious, for we do not know, for if we did, we would not weep as we do, give us visions of ourselves, naked, so we may be better and do better. Yes, we want to understand who we are, and who it is you want us to be, we can articulate but don't really comprehend your glory, for we are only children "My Lord", know, we are ready to take responsibility for our despair, ready to our part, ready to use the tools you have granted to us, as we are grateful for your guidance, your abundance, your consideration, and your mercy, "Most High", these are the things we ask of thee...

Obituary

SEANÉ MARIA HALL was born in New York, NY to the proud parents of Carol Bryant and Alfredo Verdejo on July 23, 1967. Seané was their first-born.

She grew up on the Lower Eastside of Manhattan. Also known as LES. Here is where she made very special friendships that developed into sisterhoods that has lasted a lifetime. They loved each other dearly. They shared many milestones like marriage and children, the success of careers, tears and plenty laughs. Everyone knows Seané had this sense of humor that was infectious. She'd give you a look, say something under her breath, give you a smirk and everyone would lose it. We all loved that about Seané.

She also attended Public School 188, Saint Bridget Jr. High and Fashion Industry High School, going on to graduate with a business degree.

Seané married John Hall Sr., they had two beautiful children together; Ms. Jeane Maria and John Hall Jr.

In 1991 Seané became a New York City Correction officer where she dedicated twenty-two years of service. In that time, she grew to know and love a group of very special individuals who became her second family. Not only did they share the challenges of a demanding job, they became so close that after retirement, one moved to Florida and the rest followed.

This is where Seané built her dream home. She had a special eye for home decor. She created an atmosphere that some would say looked like a museum, from the beautiful African pieces, to the gentle stillness of her Buddha's and her blinged out Jaguar. All of which made her home so beautifully inviting.

Seané loved to travel. Her and her daughter Jeane joined a travel group where they traveled the world. Yes, Seané was a shopaholic. She had such a sense of style, from sporty to jazzy, from sexy to elegant, that was Seané.

Seané also loved her family. Even after her divorce she maintained very special relationships, attending family functions, even proudly keeping her last name as Hall.

Seané leaves to mourn her lovely daughter Ms. Jeane Maria Hall, her one and only most precious granddaughter Soulee Maria Johnson, her brother George David Williams, her nephew Gregory Adeyinka Williams, and sisters, brothers, in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.

It gives us all solace to know that Seané was greeted by, her mother Carol Williams and her beloved son John Hall Jr., as he gave his mother a hand, together they all will soar the heavens in eternal peace.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family
