

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun
Of happy memories
that I leave behind when day is done.*

Obituary

SHAIMEEK FRAZIER was born a beautiful, healthy baby, the first daughter of 4 children to the proud parents of Shamika Kearney and Reginald Frazier, born in New York on July 27,1998. To know her is to love her, and if you knew Shaimeek you knew her by the nicknames of ShyShee and Pooopsie given by her mother from birth which later family and friends called her, along with Shy, FlyShy, and ShyShy. Shaimeek was an independent and motivated high school graduate that started at Northern Manhattan Headstart.

Shy asked for no handouts which explains her many job experiences, with her drive to be successful starting at the age of 14. She’s worked for SYEP summer camp for kids, many retail stores, and food services, lastly at Mighty Quinn’s BBQ.

If you knew Shaimeek, she definitely had a creative nickname in store for you, no matter who you were. She would call her younger sister, Shalae; “Chic-fil-a”, her youngest sister, Shaleah; “DooDooBall”, one of her Aunts, Yada; “Uncle Nnenna” and more.

Shaimeek shared countless memories with her family throughout her life, playing around with her sisters and older brother Tyrell and going out with her friends, aunts and cousins. She enjoyed dancing, cracking jokes and playing video games, one of many being fortnite. Her cousin Lexiee “LexDollaz”, her aunt Dimma “VhahenaDimma” and her little sister Shalae “Payday Shalae” formed a rap group in their younger days.

Shy left a mark on every person she’s met with her diverse goofy sense of humor and confident charm.

She could make any activities you did with her fun no matter what it was. Shaimeek was always thinking of what to do next to get where she wanted to be in life. She had many plans ahead of her and will forever be in our hearts. She leaves to cherish her memory, her mother she adored; her love for her mother was unconditional. The two were extremely close. Her dad, in which she came to for his wisdom; shared many traits, giving Shy her dominant, fierce and strong mindset.

She loved and cared very deeply for her siblings, Her brother Tyrell, Two sisters Shalae and Shaleah; Her loving Grandma Loretta, Uncle Antoine, Three aunts Kyetha, Nnenna, Dimma, Great Aunt Tia, and Great Uncle Ty. Shaimeek was loved by a host of cousins, close friend Bershar and remembered by many friends.

Shaimeek was a beautiful force of life, and she will forever live through us.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family.
